And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

From the questions being asked it is apparent that some of you have not been paying attention. . .

These men you see going around town needing a shave are not just rebelling against society. They are just trying to get a head start on the beard growing contest to be held as part of the July Fourth Bicentennial Celebration.

Now some of us are holding out to find out what the fine is going to be for not entering the contest.

In talking to John Watts, BCD president, the tentative plans being made for the Bicentennial Celebration are sounding great. It almost makes me wish that we had not already scheduled to be gone on our vacation that day.

The plans that we have heard about call for this to be just an old fashioned day in the park with something to interest everyone.

It is hoped that something like this could be worked into an annual affair.

The Wall Street Journal recently reported on a new crime that sounds outrageous to horse-loving

A new type of rustling is on the rise. Instead of cattle, the thieves are snatching horses, good ones and poor ones, to supply a growing demand for horsemeat.

The financial newspaper reported that a horse Named I Think So was snatched from a field outside Houston where her owner had left her unattended. He never thought about somebody grabbing his race horse for eating purposes, but that's what happened.

I Think So was no ordinary nag. She won $150,000 on the race track and her foals brought $5,000 each. When she was stolen and sold to a slaughter plant to be quartered for dinner steaks, she brought a top market price of 22 cents a pound.

Increasingly, horse owners, particularly in the Southwest, are discovering that their animals are missing—the victims of a flourishing horse rustling business.

These stolen animals are likely to wind up on the dinner table of a fancy restaurant in the East, or sent overseas to dining places in France where horsemeat is a real delicacy.

All of which sounds almost like cannibalism to the Texas horse lover to whom his four-footed steed is not only a source of fun and sometimes profit, but also is regarded as a friend.

There are about a dozen horse slaughtering plants in the United States and they process around 1,300 animals a week. They say they don't know how many of these horses are stolen, but the number be significant.

The chief investigator of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association estimates that every week about 20 horses disappear in Texas and another five in Oklahoma.

It seems that nothing is sacred any more.

"Thje spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;" Isaiah

Christian would No question that Jesus Christ was the fulfillment of this age old prophecy given by Isaiah the prophet hundreds of years before the Messiah's birth. "...God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him." Acts. 10:38 Jesus identified himself as the "good shepherd" as he drew the line for recognizing the enemy. He said, "The thief (satan) cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly (or unlimited)." John 10:10 Now the Lord said, "He that seeth me seeth him that sent me." John 12:45 In another place he said, ",,,he that hath seen me hath seen the Father." John 14:9

Let's admit something. Either Jesus expressed to us the perfect will of God for the lives of men, or he walked absolutely in rebellion of his Father's desires by healing all those oppressed by the If Jesus was in the will of God, and he certainly was, then it must be God's will to heal those oppressed by devils or demons. The Word says "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today, and forever." God the Father and the Lord Jesus have not changed their mind or will. Man has.

Who has told us that it might not be God's will to deliver us from sickness? Men filled with unbelief. Who told us that God might not deliver us from fear and loneliness? Men filled with doubt.

Let's stop listening to the voice of man that stops the power of God and explains it away simply because they can't appropiate it in their lives because of doubt.

God can. Not only is he able, but he will do it for you-In the name of Jesus through faith in that name.

... and God bless Mother

This little one is aware of his mother's tender care, and responds with love. It would be wonderful if all of us showed our love for our Mothers all of the time. Even if we have been a little neglectful, we have an opportunity to go all out this Sunday, and express to her our love and appreciation for her goodness to us. The Bible tells us to "Honour thy Father and thy Mother."

I have been taking my baby to the Hamlin Child Care Center since he was three months old. He will soon be two years. His name is Allen McGee known as ButterHead. Mrs. Crowley took him to the doctor to see about his legs. The doctor told her if he didn't get any help for his legs, he would be crippled for the rest of his life. Mrs. Crowley started to work on trying to get the money for his braces that he had to have. She paid for his shoes herself that he has to sleep in. Then there was the problem of clothes which I couldn't afford to buy myself. Philosopher Fears TV Woman's Million Dollar Fee Will Start A Chain Reaction

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One joins others in talking about that high-Priced woman on TV.

Dear editor:

It's none of my business. but if people wrote and talked only about what's their own business there'd be blank pages and great silences all over the land, so I'd like to report on one aspect of the todo over Barbara Walters' getting a million dollars a year for joining the ABC network as a news announcer.

As I understand it, Miss Walters is to become a coequal with Harry Reasoner,

Fun Fair Planned For Older Citizens In Abilene May 11

A Fit-As-A-Fiddle Fun Fair will be held Tuesday, May 11, at the Abilene Civic Center for all older citizens of the area. The fair will last from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. and no admission will be charged.

The event is being sponsored by the West Central Texas Council of Governments Area Agency on Aging. It will include health screening, entertainment, luncheon, exhibits, films, and training seminars.

The luncheon is being sponsored by the American Association of Retired Persons as a Bicentennial Celebration. Featured speaker will be Dr. Zane Travis of Abilene who will speak on "Keeping Fit After Fifty." Luncheon tickets may be purchased for $2.50 each.

Interested persons should contact Betty Thompson. aging services coordinator, in regard to the luncheon tickets. She may be contacted at 823-2916 in Anson.

Mr. and Mrs. William David Stephens of Roby are parents of a son, William Blake, 8 lbs. 8½ oz., born May 2 at 5:15 p.m.

who up to now has been handling the anchor job by himself on the evening news report. For this she will get a million dollars a year for the next five years.

Now as I further understand it, Mr. Reasoner is mad about this, because he makes only $400,000 a year.

This got me to thinking. This is going to unleash a whole string of reactions.

For instance, you reckon maybe President Ford is going to get mad at Mr. Reasoner because the President makes only $200,000 a year? Supreme Court judges are going to get mad at the President because they make only $60,000 a year. In turn, that makes Congressmen mad because they make only $42,000 a year.

And when you consider what the average man makes, this means that nearly everybody in the country is going to get mad at Congress. What happened to all the talk about equal employment opportunities?

I don't think ABC and Miss Walters realize what a hornet's nest they've broken open, although ABC may notice something buzzing around its head if, after a few months, the novelty of a woman as an "anchorperson" wears off and people go back to watching whichever network they were watching before.

Incidentally, Miss Walters, who was making about $500,000 a year in her old job with NBC, was quoted as saying, after she signed her 5million-dollar contract, "I've always thought, if I had a million dollars I'd sleep till
